What else should I know?

- Your account information can be found under the icon with three books in the upper right corner of the screen. In your account you will find:
 - Titles that you have checked out, holds that you are waiting for, and your wish list.
- Books will automatically check out for three weeks.
- You'll see the option to renew a title three days before it's set to expire. A "Request again" button will appear under the title on your Loans page. When you renew a digital title, it doesn't extend your lending period. Instead, it lets you borrow the title again immediately after your current checkout expires (if no one is on hold) or it places you on the wait list to borrow the title again as soon as possible (if someone is on hold).
